I was anticipating joining ASC, at some point / but my wife and I have decided to downsize and with our my failing health a boat that big is a lot of work / I would love to sale the boat to the right individual or family for a fair price / she is in great condition / and needs someone to use it /I think we have been out on "finally" a half dozen times in two years / she currently sits at trade winds marina on "C"

forgot to mention she comes with a forty foot semi trailer that i would be glad to keep in storage until needed / she sits in my construction yard were i operate a company / thanks for your help
